Bursary Fund 2018

All MANCOSA bursaries are offered for distance learning programmes, and are offered according to the MANCOSA Bursary Policy. MANCOSA bursaries are only available to students applying for the first time.

The MANCOSA Bursary Fund is subject to the following conditions:

- Only students accepted and registered to study at MANCOSA may apply for a bursary;
- The student is required to pay the necessary registration fee and submit proof of payment together with the application form;
- The student agrees to complete the MANCOSA undergraduate/postgraduate programme
- The bursary will cover 100% student fees for the January 2018 academic year, excluding to the registration fee;
- The bursary excludes textbook costs, which is the responsibility of the bursary recipient;
- The student must pass all modules for the 2018 academic year for the renewal of the bursary to be considered;
- Should the student fail more than one module per year, he/she will be liable to pay back the fees for the entire years study; and this will result in the cancellation of the student's bursary.

Criteria to qualify for a bursary:

- Achieve a level 4 in both Mathematics and English.
- Achieve an overall aggregate of 60% in Matric.
- Achieve a 65% aggregate in a previous qualification to qualify for a Degree Programme Bursary.
