

(Application for Financial Aid for Educational Purposes: 2017)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION PERTAINING TO A SANDF EDU TRUST BURSARY

The main objective of the SANDF Education Trust is to provide financial aid by means of a bursary scheme to the dependents of the following categories of persons:

- SANDF members killed or severely injured subsequent to 27 April 1994 whilst on official duty;
- Civilian members of the Department of Defence killed or severely injured subsequent to 27 April 1994 whilst deployed in operations with the SANDF;
- Citizens of the Republic of South Africa killed or injured subsequent to 27 April 1994 during the course of an operation of the SANDF, provided that such citizens were not engaged in an activity in opposition to the aims of the SANDF operation,

Who are or will be attending primary, secondary or tertiary educational institutions.

- When considering applications, the Board of Trustees will take into account the merit and need of the applicant and therefore the annual gross income of the Parent/Guardian/Caregivers is also considered as criteria for the awarding of the bursary.
- The Board of Trustees of the SANDF Education Trust determines the minimum and maximum bursary amounts to be allocated to each applicant and the amounts may vary annually.
- The mandatory National Means-Test is applied to all applications to determine the value of the bursary amount. An Expected Family Contribution (EFC) towards school/study fees might be required depending on the gross income of the parent(s)/guardian(s).
- All other bursaries that the learner/student will receive whether from Institution funds or independent bursars have to be taken into account when the Trustees apply the Means-Test and has to be deducted from the SANDF Education Trust allocation.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS (APPLICATION FOR TERTIARY STUDIES)

- Prospective tertiary first year students must have obtained an APS-score of at least 22 during their June Grade 12 examinations and must apply before 31 October of the preceding year of study.
- Senior students must pass at least 60% of the modules taken to be eligible for a SANDF Education Trust bursary in the next year. The closing date for senior students is 01 November annually.

Bursaries are awarded for one academic year only. Beneficiaries need to re-apply each year according to the closing dates for submission of applications. Continued financial assistance will be in accordance with the academic progress made by the applicant and the financial status of the household.
